2. THE COMPLAINT

2.1 On 24 June 2009, the Commission received an application for leniency in terms of the CLP from Macsteel. Macsteel alleged that it was involved in an agreement or concerted practice with Trident to fix prices and trading conditions in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(i) and 4(1)(b)(ii) in respect of steel products manufactured by Highveld. The steel products were destined for export into the Africa Overland Market ("AOM").

2.2 Macsteel furthermore alleged that it had an arrangement with Highveld to charge a premium to domestic resellers or wholesalers who on-sold steel products sourced from Highveld.

2.3 On the basis of the information submitted the Commissioner initiated an investigation against Macsteel and Trident in January 2010. Macsteel was granted conditional immunity on 23 February 2010.

3. THE COMMISSION'S FINDINGS

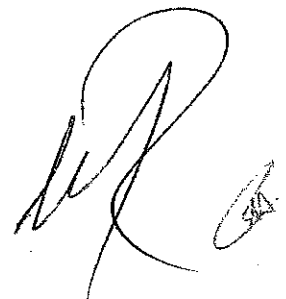

Upon completion of its investigation into the Complaint, the Commission found that Trident had engaged in the following prohibited practices –

3.1 Highveld manufactures a range of steel products for sale in the domestic and export markets. These include beams, columns, heavy angles, channels, joists and coil plate. During the period July 2002 and April 2008 both Macsteel and Trident acted as distributors of Highveld for its steel products sold in the AOM.

- 3.2 Macsteel and Trident agreed to sell all steel products manufactured by Highveld and sold into the AOM at a set price in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(i) of the Act.
- 3.3 Macsteel and Trident were party to the stock replacement scheme offered by Highveld. The scheme offered to Macsteel and Trident an incentive to export to the AOM in exchange for the replacement of their respective exported stock at favourable prices. Macsteel and Trident sold some of their stock to domestic resellers or wholesalers. This stock was sold to resellers on the understanding that they would export the stock to their customers in the AOM and provide proof of export to Macsteel and Trident. Highveld would then replenish the two companies' stock in accordance with the scheme upon being furnished with proof of export of the steel products.
- 3.4 Often the resellers would on-sell the steel products meant for export into the domestic market and as such would not be able to provide proof of export. Without proof of export MacSteel and Trident lost the benefit of the replacement scheme. To address this common problem Macsteel and Trident agreed on a premium to charge all domestic resellers and wholesalers who on-sold steel products manufactured by Highveld. By agreeing to fix the premium charged to resellers and wholesalers Macsteel and Trident contravened section 4(1)(b)(i) of the Act.

5.2 Trident agrees to refrain from engaging in price fixing or fixing of trading conditions in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(i) of the Act.

5.3 In terms of the Consent Order, dated 6 April 2011, Aveng committed to implementing a Group wide compliance program, incorporating corporate governance designed to ensure that its employees and directors are informed of their obligations under competition law and the provisions of the Act. The compliance program was implemented throughout the Aveng Group, which includes Trident, following the Tribunal's hearing into the Aveng (Africa) Limited trading as Steeledale matter, under Tribunal Case Number: 84/CR/Dec10.
