2 BACKGROUND

- 2.1 On 10 February 2009, the Commission initiated a complaint in terms of section 49B(1) of the Act into alleged prohibited practices relating to collusive conduct in the construction of the stadiums for the 2010 FIFA Soccer World Cup against Group Five, Grinaker-LTA (the construction operating business unit of Aveng), Basil Read (Pty) Ltd, WBHO Construction (Pty) Ltd, Murray & Roberts Limited, Stefanutti Stocks Limited, Interbeton Abu Dhabi nv llc and Bouygues Construction SA.
- 2.2 In addition, on 1 September 2009, following the receipt of applications for immunity in terms of the CLP, the Commission initiated a complaint in terms of section 49B(1) of the Act into particular prohibited practices relating to conduct in respect of construction projects, by the firms listed below. The complaint concerned alleged contraventions of section 4(1)(b) of the Act with regard to price fixing, market allocation and collusive tendering. The investigation was initiated against the following firms: Stefanutti, Aveng (Africa) Limited, Group Five Ltd, Murray & Roberts, Concor Ltd, G. Liviero & Son Building (Pty) Ltd, Giuricich Coastal Projects (Pty) Ltd, Hochtief Construction AG, Dura Soletanche-Bachy (Pty) Ltd, Nishimatsu Construction Co Ltd, Esorfranki Ltd, VNA Pilings CC, Rodio Geotechnics (Pty) Ltd, Diabor Ltd, Gauteng Piling (Pty) Ltd, Fairbrother Geotechnical CC, Geomechanics CC, Wilson Bayly Holmes-Ovcon Ltd and other construction firms, including joint ventures.

- 2.3 The Commission's investigation of the above complaints, as well as several other of the Commission's investigations in the construction industry, led the Commission to believe that there was widespread collusion in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(iii) of the Act in the construction industry. Accordingly, in line with the purpose of the Act as well as the Commission's functions, the Commission decided to invite construction firms that were involved in collusive conduct to apply to engage in settlement on favourable terms. The Invitation was published on the Commission's website on 1 February 2011 ("Invitation"). This was also done in the interests of transparency, efficiency, adaptability and development of the construction industry, the provision of competitive prices, as well as in order to expedite finalisation of the investigations, under a fast track process. The Invitation specifically provided that it was open to firms to also apply for leniency in terms of the CLP.

2.4 In response to the Invitation and in terms of the Commission's CLP, Basil Read was first to apply for leniency in respect of two non-prescribed prohibited practices.

3 CONDITIONAL IMMUNITY

3.1 The Commission granted Basil Read conditional immunity from prosecution before the Tribunal for its involvement in cartel conduct described in paragraph 4 below.

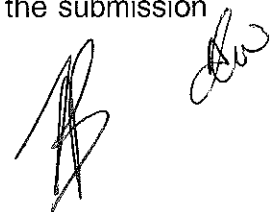

3.2 Basil Read agreed to co-operate with the Commission in respect of any steps that the Commission may deem necessary to obtain an order from the Tribunal declaring the conduct set out in paragraph 4 below to be a contravention of section 4(1) (b) (iii) of the Act.

4 CONDUCT IN CONTRAVENTION OF THE ACT

4.1 In its CLP application, Basil Read disclosed its participation in the following prohibited practice or contravention of section 4(1)(b)(iii) of the Act:

The Rehabilitation of sections of road P65/2 from Parys to N1 Project (WRT (T) 16/2005)

4.2 In or about July 2006, Basil Read reached an agreement with Wascon and Meyker, in terms of which these parties agreed on the submission of cover prices in relation to the tender for the rehabilitation of section of road P65/2 from Parys.

4.3 In terms of the agreement,

4.3.1 Basil Read and Wascon would bid an inflated price to enable Meyker to win the tender; and

4.3.2 Meyker, Wascon and Basil Read agreed to add a loser's fee to their respective bids. More particularly, it was agreed that the winner of the tender would pay R2 000 000.00 to each of the losing bidders as a loser's fee.

4.4 Meyker was awarded the tender and paid a part of the loser's fee to Basil Read during August 2006 and October 2007.

4.5 The project was for the rehabilitation of a section of the road P65/2 from Parys to the N1 in the Free State Province and Sanral was the client.

5 ADMISSION

Basil Read admits that the conduct set out in paragraph 4 above is collusive tendering in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(iii) of the Act.

6 CO-OPERATION

6.1. In so far as the Commission is aware, and in compliance with the requirements as set out in the CLP, Basil Read:

7 FUTURE CONDUCT

- 7.1. Basil Read confirms that it no longer engages in the conduct set out in paragraph 4 above.
- 7.2. In compliance with the requirements as set out in the CLP, Basil Read agrees and undertakes to provide the Commission with full and expeditious co-operation from the time that this Consent Agreement is concluded until the subsequent proceedings in the Competition Tribunal or the Competition Appeal Court are completed, if any. This includes, but is not limited to:

- 7.4 Basil Read shall circulate a statement summarising the contents of this Consent Agreement to all management and operational staff employed at Basil Read within 60 days from the date of confirmation of this Consent Agreement by the Tribunal.
- 7.5 Basil Read will not in the future engage in any form of prohibited conduct and will not engage in collusive tendering which will distort the outcome of tender processes but undertakes henceforth to engage in competitive bidding.
