2 BACKGROUND

- 2.1 On 28 July 2008, CWI applied for corporate leniency for its involvement in certain cartel activity in the wire industry. Based on this information, the Commission initiated a complaint against various firms, including Cape Gate, and began investigating the matter.
- 2.2 On 7 September 2009, the Commission concluded its investigations and referred its findings to the Tribunal that AMG, CWI and Cape Gate had contravened section 4(1)(b) of the Act ("Referral").¹
- 2.3 In answer to the Referral, Cape Gate admitted its involvement in the alleged conduct but disputed the quantum of its penalty. Notwithstanding this narrow dispute with the Commission, Cape Gate provided documentary evidence as well as witness testimony in support of the Commission's litigation against AMG.
- 2.4 Unfortunately, the litigation of the Referral has been protracted by numerous legal challenges which has taken the parties through the Courts, including the Supreme Court of Appeal.² Cape Gate has on many occasions assisted the Commission in these processes by supporting the Commission's arguments on the merits of the matter.³

3 CONDUCT IN CONTRAVENTION OF THE ACT

- 3.1 The Referral reflects the Commission's findings that from 2001 to about 2008, Cape Gate had met and corresponded with CWI and AMG, on numerous occasions, to fix their selling prices in South Africa of wire and wire related products.⁴ Prices were fixed by agreeing on a common national price list and certain discounts that may be deducted from the national price list.⁵
- 3.2 In addition, the Commission found that from 2006 to 2008, Cape Gate, CWI and AMG allocated customers for wire and wire related products by agreeing to share customers or not compete for each other's "traditional" customers.⁶
- 3.3 Finally, the Commission found that from 2001 to 2008, Cape Gate, AMG and CWI tendered collusively by coordinating their respective bids to supply cable armouring. These firms coordinated their bids to ensure that an allocated respondent was awarded certain tenders. In relation to Cape

Gate, these tenders were the Malasela Technologies tender as well as the 2001 Harmony Gold tender.

- 3.4 The Commission found that the above conduct contravened sections 4(1)(b)(i), (ii) and (iii) of the Act.

4 ADMISSION

- 4.1 Cape Gate admits that it engaged in conduct that contravenes section 4(1)(b) of the Act.

5 CO-OPERATION

- 5.1 Cape Gate agrees to fully cooperate with the Commission in its prosecution of the remaining respondents in the above collusive conduct.

This cooperation includes, but is not limited to:

- 5.1.1 To the extent that it is in existence, provide evidence, written or otherwise, which is in its possession or under its control, concerning the alleged contraventions contained in this Settlement Agreement;
- 5.1.2 Avail employees of Cape Gate, and using reasonable endeavours to contact past employees of Cape Gate, to assist the Commission in the prosecution of the alleged contraventions covered by this Settlement Agreement; and

- 5.1.3 To the extent that it is able, testify in respect of the alleged contravention covered by this Settlement Agreement.

6 FUTURE CONDUCT

Cape Gate agrees and undertakes to:

- 6.1 prepare and circulate a statement summarising the content of this agreement to its, managers and directors within 14 (fourteen) days of the date of confirmation of this Settlement Agreement as an order of the Tribunal;
- 6.2 if not already doing so, implement and monitor a competition law compliance programme incorporating corporate governance designed to ensure that its employees, management, directors and agents do not engage in future contraventions of the Act. In particular, such compliance programme will include mechanisms for the monitoring and detection of any contravention of the Act. This programme will be submitted to the Commission within thirty days of this settlement being confirmed by the Tribunal; and
- 6.3 refrain from engaging in any contraventions of the Act.

- 7.2 Cape Gate will pay the administrative penalty in five equal installments of R8 000 000 (eight million rand). The first installment will be paid within 12 months from the date of the Tribunal's order with subsequent instalments on the anniversary of the Tribunal's order.
