2. THE COMMISSION'S INVESTIGATION AND FINDINGS

2.1. On 01 April 2015, the Commissioner initiated a complaint against Barclays Bank Plc; Barclays Africa Group Ltd; BNP Paribas; BNP Paribas South Africa; Citigroup Inc. Citigroup Global Markets (Pty) Ltd; JP Morgan Chase & Co; and JP Morgan South Africa, Investec Ltd, Standard New York Securities Inc. Standard Chartered Bank collectively referred to as the "Respondents" for collusive conduct with regards to trading in foreign currency exchange involving the South Africa Rand (ZAR). This case was investigated under case number 2015Apr0147.

2.2. The allegations against the Respondents are that they entered into an agreement and/or engaged in a concerted practice to directly or indirectly fix prices in relation to bids, offers and bid-offer spreads in respect of spot trades, forward trades and futures trades through, inter alia, coordination/alignment of the bids, offers and bid-offer spreads that they quote to customers who buy and sell certain foreign currency pairs involving the ZAR in possible contravention of 4(1)(b)(i) of the Act, as amended.

2.3. On 23 August 2016, the Commissioner amended the initiation to include ABSA Bank Limited, Barclays Capital Inc, Credit Suisse Group; Commerzbank AG; Bank of America Merrill Lynch International Limited, HSBC Bank Plc; ANZ, Citibank N.A, JP Morgan, Nomura International Plc., Macquarie Group and JP Morgan Chase Bank N.A as additional respondents and to include the conduct of dividing markets by allocating customers against the respondents. This case was investigated under case number 2016Aug0432.

2.4. Further, it is alleged that the Respondents being competitors in the foreign exchange market involving the ZAR agreed and/or engaged in a concerted practice of assisting each other through allowing a trader with a large open risk position to complete his trades first before trading and through holding and/or pulling their trades to reserve liquidity for each other instead of trading normally in the market in possible contravention of section 4(1)(b) (ii) of the Act, as amended.

2.5. The Commission found that Citibank and its competitors fixed prices of bids, offers and bid-offer spreads in relation to spot trades of ZAR currency pairs, as set out in paragraph 2.2 above. In addition, the Commission found that Citibank and its competitors assisted each other through allowing a trader with a large open risk position to complete his trades first before trading and through holding and/or pulling their trades to reserve liquidity for each other instead of trading normally in the market, as set out in paragraph 2.4 above. This conduct amounts to price fixing and market division which contravene section 4(1)(b)(i) & (ii) of the Act.

3. ADMISSION

3.1. The Respondent admits that between September 2007 and October 2013 it engaged in the prohibited practices in respect of spot trading of ZAR currency pairs as set out in paragraph 2 above in contravention of section 4(1)(b) (i) & (ii) of the Act.

4. COOPERATION

- 4.1 Citibank confirms that it has ceased to engage in the conduct set out in paragraph 2 above.
- 4.2 Citibank shall fully cooperate with the Commission in relation to the prosecution of other participants in the alleged contravention in the Complaint. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Citibank specifically agrees to:
- 4.1.1 testify in the Complaint referral (if any) in respect of alleged contraventions covered by this Consent Agreement; and
- 4.1.2 to the extent that it is in existence, provide evidence, written or otherwise, which is in its possession or under its control (and which is not subject to legal privilege), concerning the alleged contraventions contained in this Consent Agreement.

5.1.3 to prepare and circulate a statement summarising the content of this Consent Agreement to its managers and directors who have market-making responsibilities at Citibank in the Republic of South Africa within 14 days from the date of confirmation of this Consent Agreement by the Tribunal.

6 ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY

6.1 Having regard to the provisions of sections 58(1)(a)(iii) as read with sections 59(1)(a), 59(2) and 59(3) of the Act, Citibank is liable to pay an administrative penalty.

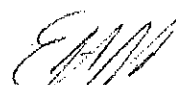

6.2 Citibank agrees and undertakes to pay an administrative penalty in the amount of ZAR69,500,860 (Sixty Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty Rand), which does not exceed 10% (ten percent) of Citibank's annual turnover in the Republic of South Africa for its financial year ended 2015.
