From 1999 until June 2014, Vitafoam was a division of KAP Raw Materials (Pty) Ltd, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Steinhoff, which at the time of the Commission's Complaint referral was called GommaGomma (Pty) Ltd.

2. The Complaint and Referral

Handwritten initials 'B' and a signature.

- 2.1. On 3 September 2007 and 26 May 2008, the Commissioner initiated the Complaint in terms of section 49B(1) of the Act, against the Respondents for allegedly engaging in conduct which contravened sections 4(1)(b)(i) and 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Act.
- 2.2. The Commission duly investigated the Complaint and in September 2008, referred the Complaint to the Tribunal under case number 13/CR/Sep08. The Commission in its Complaint referral alleged that:
- 2.2.1. Loungefoam and Vitafoam agreed to fix the selling price of the foam they produce and the benchmark price they used to negotiate the purchase price of chemicals used in producing foam, in contravention of section ~~4(1)(b)~~(i) of the Act;
 - 2.2.2. Loungefoam and Vitafoam agreed to divide markets by allocating customers during meetings of the Foam Forum in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Act; and
 - 2.2.3. Loungefoam, Vitafoam and Feltex allocated customers through a reciprocal restraint agreement in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Act.
 - 2.2.4. After protracted litigation, the Commission and the Respondents entered into settlement discussions and agreed to settle the matter on the terms set out in this Settlement Agreement. In coming to this Settlement Agreement, the Commission considered the facts set out in clause 3 below, in particular the nature of the control exercised by Steinhoff over Loungefoam and Vitafoam, and decided that settlement on the basis of a contravention of section 13A(3) would be appropriate in these circumstances.

3. Prior Implementation

- 3.1. In October 1997, Steinhoff acquired a 50.1% interest in Loungefoam and its shareholding has fluctuated over time.
- 3.2. Subsequently in April 1999, Steinhoff acquired control of Cornick Group Limited ("Cornick Group") of which Vitafoam was a division of a subsidiary, in a transaction which was notified to the erstwhile Competition Board, in or about May 1999.
- 3.3. Steinhoff acquired sole control over Loungefoam on 1 September 2003.
- 3.4. Steinhoff's understanding was that it acquired control of Loungefoam in October 1997 and of Vitafoam in April 1999, when it acquired Cornick Group in the transaction which was notified to and approved by the erstwhile Competition Board. Accordingly it genuinely and bona fide understood itself, Loungefoam and Vitafoam to be firms which had merged (with permission from the competition authorities) prior to the current Act coming into effect.
- 3.5. Steinhoff has exercised control over both Vitafoam and Loungefoam since October 1997 and April 1999 respectively.
- 3.6. Loungefoam ceased trading on 1 July 2009 and accordingly, the co-operation between Loungefoam and Vitafoam which concerned the Commission also ceased then.

4. Admission

4.1. The Respondents admit that:

- 4.1.1. the acquisition by Steinhoff of sole control over Loungefoam constituted a notifiable merger as defined in section 11(5) of the Act; and

4.1.2. they failed to give notice of the merger as required by Chapter 3 of the Act and proceeded to implement the merger without the approval of the Commission as required by the Act.

5. Agreement concerning the Respondents' future conduct

- 5.1. The Respondents agree and undertake to notify to the Commission of all future transactions that constitutes a merger as defines defined in section 12(1) of the Act and which meets the thresholds in section 11(5)(b) or (c) of the act. The Respondents furthermore agree and undertake to not implement any such transaction without first obtaining approval from the competition authorities.
- 5.2. The Respondents also agree and undertake to develop, implement and monitor a competition law compliance programme as part of their corporate governance policy, which is designed to ensure that its employees, management, directors and agents do not engage in future contraventions of the Act. In particular, such compliance programme will include mechanisms for the identification, prevention, detection and monitoring of any contravention of the Act.
- 5.3. The Respondents furthermore agree and undertake to submit a copy of such compliance programme to the Commission within 60 days of the date of confirmation of the Settlement Agreement as an order by the Competition Tribunal.

6. Administrative Penalty

- 6.1. Having regard to the provisions of section 59(1)(d), 59(2) and 59(3) of the Act, the Respondents agree that they are jointly and severally liable to pay an administrative penalty for the contravention of section 13A(3) of the Act, the one paying and the others to be absolved.

6.2. The Respondents agree and undertake to pay an administrative penalty in the amount of R1 750 000.00 (one million, seven hundred and fifty thousand rand, only).

6.3. The Respondents will pay the amount set out in paragraph 6.2 above to the Commission within 30 days from the date of confirmation of this Settlement Agreement as an order of the Tribunal.

6.4. The penalty must be paid into the Commission's bank account which is as follows:

Name: The Competition Commission Fee Account
Bank: Absa Bank, Pretoria
Account Number: 4050778576
Branch Code: 323 345
Reference: Steinhoff/13/CR/Sep08

6.5. The penalty will be paid over by the Commission to the National Revenue Fund in accordance with the provisions of section 59(4) of the Act.

7. Full and Final Settlement

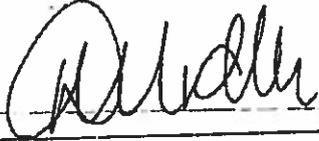

7.1 This Settlement Agreement, upon confirmation as an order by the Tribunal, is entered into in full and final settlement of the Complaint and concludes all proceedings between the Commission and the Respondents relating to the Complaint.

7.2 The applicants in the application to the High Court, Gauteng Division, Pretoria under case number 42898/15 will withdraw their application within 5 (five) business days of the date of confirmation of this Settlement Agreement as an order by the Tribunal and service notice of this on the Commission.
