2 Complaint investigation and Commission's findings

2.1 The Commission has informed Marley that:

2.1.1 On 12 October 2007, the first respondent filed an intermediate merger notification with the Commission. It intended to merge with Incedon Cape (Pty) Ltd.

2.1.2 During the course of the merger investigation the Commission found inter alia that the merging parties were involved in collusive activities in contravention of the Act. The merger was subsequently prohibited.

2.1.3 Prior to the prohibition of the merger, the first respondent applied for immunity from prosecution and fines in terms of the Commission's Corporate Leniency Policy. In its application submitted on 08 January 2008, the first respondent furnished the Commission with evidence of the existence of collusion in the markets for pipe products involving it and the other respondents. The alleged collusion involved:

- 2.1.3.1 Price fixing;
- 2.1.3.2 Bid rigging; and
- 2.1.3.3 Allocation of markets and/ or customers.

2.2 The Commission initiated and conducted an investigation as a result of which it found that all respondents had contravened section 4 (1) (b) of the Act as follows:

2.2.1 The respondents agreed to fix the discounts that each would give to customers in contravention of section 4(1) (b) (i) of the Act.

2.2.2 The respondents agreed to submit uniform prices in response to tenders and allocate tenders to one another on rotational basis in contravention of sections 4 (1)(b)(ii) and (iii) of the Act.

2.2.3 On 02 February 2009 the Commission referred its findings to the Tribunal under CT case number 15/CR/Feb09.

3. Settlement discussions

- 3.1 Marley co-operated with the Commission's investigation and provided information to the Commission, including detailed statements from its employees.
- 3.2 Marley admitted that it had contravened the Act in that during the period between 2004 to 2007, Marley and the other respondents, in respect of PVC and HDPE pipes products:
 - 3.2.1 attended a series of meetings wherein agreements, arrangements and understandings to fix selling prices and/or price discounts in respect of the PVC and the HDPE pipes products were reached, in contravention of section 4 (1) (b) (i) of the Act;
 - 3.2.2 attended a series of meetings wherein agreements, arrangements and/or understandings to divide markets for pipes products in the respective areas (Eastern Cape, Kwazulu-Natal, Gauteng and Western Cape) were reached, in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Act; and
 - 3.2.3 agreed to allocate/share contracts amongst themselves in accordance with agreed upon percentage shares of the markets for PVC and HDPE pipes products and fixing the prices at which quotations were offered to contractors in order to secure such contracts, in contravention of section 4(1) (b) (iii) of the Act.

3.3 The conduct referred to above occurred in inter alia:

3.3.1 Eastern Cape;

3.3.2 Kwazulu-Natal;

3.3.3 Gauteng; and

3.3.4 Western Cape.

3.4 Marley and the Commission then engaged in protracted settlement discussions pertaining to the determination of an appropriate penalty, the outcome of which is this Settlement Agreement.

4 Admissions

4.1 Marley admits that it has contravened section 4 (1)(b) (i),(ii) and (iii) of the Act as detailed in paragraph 3 above.

5 Agreement concerning future conduct

5.1 Marley agrees to fully cooperate with the Commission in relation to the prosecution of any other respondents in this Complaint referral. Without limiting the generality of the above, Marley specifically agrees to:

5.1.1 testify in support of the Commission's case regarding the contraventions in this settlement agreement; and

5.1.2 provide evidence, written or otherwise, which is in its possession or under its control concerning the contraventions contained in this settlement agreement.

5.2 Marley agrees to develop and implement a compliance programme incorporating corporate governance, designed to ensure that employees, management and directors within Marley, its subsidiaries and business units do not engage in any contraventions of section 4 (1) (b) of the Act, a copy of which programme shall be submitted to the Commission within 60 days of the date of confirmation of this settlement agreement as an order by the Tribunal.

5.3 Marley agrees that it will cease to engage in conduct detailed in paragraph 3.

6 Administrative Penalty

6.1 Having regard to the provisions of section 58(1) (a) (iii), read with sections 59(1) (a), 59(2) and (3) of the Act, Marley accepts that it is liable to pay an administrative penalty.

6.2 The parties have agreed that Marley will pay an administrative penalty in the sum of R31 078 213.02 (thirty one million one hundred and seventy-eight thousand two hundred and thirteen rands and two cents) being 6% of Marley's total turnover in the 2007 financial year, less the turnover attributable to Specialty Products.

6.3 Marley will pay the penalty amount to the Commission in two equal annual payments, the first such payment to be made within 30 days of confirmation of this Settlement Agreement by the Tribunal and the remaining payment on or before 28 February 2011.

6.4 The Commission will pay these sums to the National Revenue Fund in terms of section 59 (4) of the Act.

7 Full and final resolution

This settlement agreement is entered into in full and final settlement and upon confirmation as an order by the Tribunal, concludes all proceedings between the Commission and Marley relating to any alleged contraventions by Marley of section 4 (1) (b) of the Act that are the subject of the Commission's investigation under case number 2008Mar3596 and its complaint referral under CT case number 15/CR/Feb09.
